

Mr. H. W. Eno of Good Hope road is visiting his brother, Ed. E. Eno and family of Winneconna, Wis., for the first time in twenty-six years.

CONGRESS HEIGHTS

A real estate sale has been made at Congress Heights in which the old homestead of Col. Arthur E. Randle was transferred to O. W. D'Alcorn of Norfolk, Va., an extensive bulb grower and florist. The consideration is said to be large. It is understood Mr. D'Alcorn will conduct a branch of his Norfolk establishment on the Randle place. A number of hot houses will be erected and about 100 hands employed.

Mr. Geo. Haar has gone to Colonial Beach in his steam launch on a fishing trip. He has as his guests Mr. Carl Wahler, Mr. Layman Scott, Mr. James Liston and Mr. James Roland. We wish them success.
